

The Åland Sea Days Association invites you to participate in the 8th annual

RACE FOR TRADITIONAL SAILING-SHIPS AND FARM-BOATS

on Wednesday, 13 July 2011

in conjunction with THE ÅLAND SEA DAYS, 12 - 17 JULY 2011

The race will be sailed from Degerby in Föglö, east of the Main Island of Åland, to the Maritime Quarter in the Eastern Harbour of Mariehamn (about 20 nm), starting in the morning/forenoon. There is no charge for participating.

Ships will gather at Degerby on Tuesday, 12 July where programmes will be arranged for ship crews and others who are interested.

Restrictions:

Ships intending to participate the whole way to the Maritime Quarter harbour should not have a draught deeper than 3 metres.

The depth of the channel in to Slemmern Bay is measured at 3.7 m and at the Maritime Quarter 3.4 metres at normal sea level. At Degerby the depth is 5 m outside and 4 m inside the jetty.

In conjunction with the prize-giving ceremony, ship crews will be invited to a joint celebration dinner.

During the Sea Days, ships will have free berths, electricity and water, and their crews are offered free saunas and showers, good entertainment and enjoyable gatherings.

We welcome all sailing-ships in the Baltic Sea and adjacent waters to Åland, the race and the Maritime Quarter during our Sea Days!
